Currently we are not operating continental day trips but plan to start running them this year. Please check our website for updates.

BRUGES via Eurotunnel

A delightful city built on the fortunes of the cloth merchants of the Middle Ages with beautiful Medieval buildings for you to admire. A trip on the canals is recommended. There are many quality restaurants and shops to sample, especially those selling Belgian chocolates! Departure time will be advised by your driver on the day.

Pick up code B

CITE EUROPE & BELGIUM - via Eurotunnel

Our first stop will be at one of Europe's largest shopping centres – Cite Europe in France. With a large selection of fashion shops, restaurants and a hypermarket you are sure to find some bargains. You can remain at Cite Europe or alternatively if you would like to purchase cigarettes or tobacco you may stay on the coach and we will stop at an outlet in Belgium, before returning back to Cite Europe where you will spend the remaining time (time permitting).

Pick up code B

DE PANNE – BELGIUM via Eurotunnel

Just across the Belgian border, this bustling seaside town has something for all tastes, especially if that includes mussels. The wide esplanade is lined with bars, cafes and souvenir shops, whilst the main streets have shops aplenty. This is, however, a very laid back town with a very pleasant relaxing atmosphere. For younger travelers, the Plopsaland Theme park is a short tram ride away on the outskirts of town. Departure time will be advised by driver on the day.

Pick up code B

OSTEND – BELGIUM Via Eurotunnel

This thousand-year-old city is a popular beach resort with Belgians, who flock here for sun, surfing, sailing, and the Kursaal (Casino). The fishing harbour and old town draw many visitors, with its renowned restaurants and many museums. Departure time will be advised by driver on the day.
